2013 GRENACHE BLANC PASO ROBLES (red/white members only)

Our 2013 Grenache Blanc presents a heavily perfumed nose of spring blossoms, peach, and mineral hints of wet stone. Rich and full bodied on the palate, it coats the mouth with honeyed flavors of mandarin orange and green apple preserves. An expansive lingering finish with just the right touch of refreshing acidity completes a full expression of the varietal. 130 cases produced. Wine Club Only
Retail Price $32 - Limestone $27.20 - Connoisseur $25.60 - Sommelier $24

2011 MOOSE PASO ROBLES

88 % SYRAH, 12 % PETIT VERDOT

The opaque purple color indicates a full body, fully extracted wine. Dark fruit density and richness fill both the nose and palate. The mid-palate shows pumpkin pie spice and classic Paso Robles Syrah meatiness. The Petit Verdot and use of powerful French cooerage adds tannic backbone and structure to help frame the richness of the Syrah, also adding a lengthy yet clean finish. 450 cases produced.

94 Pts.-Wine Advocate, Robert Parker

Retail Price $48; Limestone $40.80 - Connoisseur $38.40 - Sommelier $36.00

2011 LLOYD OF CALCAREOUS PASO ROBLES

37% MERLOT, 28% CABERNET FRANC, 23% CABERNET SAUVIGNON,
7% MALBEC, 5% PETIT VERDOT

Deep elegant red hues express the full extraction and amazing acidity of the wine. The nose is full of earthy spice, currant and blackberry. Ripe dark red fruit, richly dense tannins and refreshing acidity make for a surprisingly juicy palate. Toasted oak intergrates well into a powerful and lengthy finish. This is a wine begging to be paired with heavy cuts like Filet or Rib-eye. 520 cases produced.

94 Pts.-Wine Advocate, Robert Parker

Retail Price $50; Limestone $42.50 - Connoisseur $40.00 - Sommelier $37.50

2012 PINOT NOIR YORK MOUNTAIN (Red Wine Members Only)

Strong earthy and floral scents with a backing of red berry in the nose leave no doubt that the wine in the glass is Pinot Noir. Amazingly bright on the initial attack from the malic acid, the upfront fruit is filled with strawberry and cherry with hints of earth and game underlining the profile of this wine. The spicy delicate tannins from the use of whole cluster fermentation reveals itself in the mid palate and continues on to help produce an amazingly complex and lengthy finish. 234 cases produced

Retail Price $40; Limestone $34.00 - Connoisseur $32.00 - Sommelier $30.00

A NOTE FROM JASON JOYCE

It is rather difficult to explain what an exciting year 2014 has been. First and foremost, the wines that went into bottle and out to our club members this year are without question some of my favorite wines we have made. The 2011 vintage has been regarded as a down year for many California wineries, and it can always be a bit nerve racking to release wines from off vintages. I on the other hand, always had great expectations for the wines we made in 2011, feeling they just needed time. We impatiently waited 3 long years to finally share them with you. I feel the wines were well worth the wait, and the Moose and Lloyd bottles in this shipment are the ones we have waited the longest for. To me, these 2 wines are profound testaments to the Calcareous Vineyard and the extraordinary wines it can produce.

There indeed has been an amazing sense of positive momentum at the winery this year, momentum that has brought some big news for us at the end of the year. For the first time since the initial planting of the Calcareous Vineyard in 2002, we have broken ground on additional vineyards on our property. We’ve long dreamed of planting the hillside surrounding our entrance driveway, and it will soon be covered in young Syrah, Petit Verdot, and Cabernet Sauvignon vines. We are also planting some spectacularly placed blocks of Grenache and Mourvedre at the very top of our property.

Again, none of this would at all be possible without our strongest supporters, our club members. With all the options you are faced with in procuring wine for your table, I am truly humbled that you continue to choose ours. During this holiday season, which brings many of the best meals of the year, I sincerely thank and raise my glass to you for playing such an important role in this endeavor we call Calcareous.

Cheers, Your Winemaker, Jason Joyce

A NOTE FROM DANA BROWN

Calcareous has enjoyed great wines, outstanding reviews, a growing wine club and fantastic events this year. Your continued support is overwhelming! We are delighted to be planting more vineyards. The terroir of Calcareous is not just the soil and vines, it’s our great team. We look forward to your visit! The holidays are such a family time. Lloyd and Moose are included in this shipment and pay tribute to my Dad. These are two of the best wines we make, I know he would be proud! I hope you enjoy all of these wines with your family and friends!
